

Lisa Collins, QC
PRINCIPAL

Lisa Collins has over thirty five years experience providing quality services and counsel to business owners and other high net-worth families. She is a retired member of the Law Society of British Columbia, and was previously a member of the Law Society of Manitoba and the Law Society of Ontario.

Lisa grew up in southern Manitoba, in a large family that was involved in retail businesses and farming, exposing her early on to the “entrepreneurial spirit”. She obtained her Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from the University of Winnipeg in 1979, followed by her Bachelor of Laws from the University of Manitoba in 1982.

She began her legal career with the Winnipeg law firm, Aikins, MacAulay & Thorvaldson, starting out articling before progressing to an associate and eventually a partner. In 1998, Lisa was proud to be appointed to the Queen’s Counsel in Manitoba. After 14 years with Aikins, she became a tax partner at Thompson Dorfman Sweatman in Winnipeg (1996 to 1999).

Lisa also has experience in the financial services industry, having served as the Vice-President of Wealth Planning for Assante Asset Management in both Winnipeg and Toronto. In this role she oversaw the management and delivery of wealth planning services for high net-worth clients.

Lisa established Luminira in 2004. Her specialized experience led her to develop a trusted advisor role, where personalized solutions preserve her clients’ wealth for future generations, providing peace-of-mind and long-term financial security.
